

20th Annual Granite Gripper

Climbing Competition

20 years of
Putting the Rad Back in Trad

Enchanted Rock

State Natural Area, TEXAS

October 22nd, 2011

The Granite Gripper - the oldest trad climbing competition in the nation - is organized by the volunteer based Central Texas Climbing Committee. All Granite Gripper revenues go directly to the Friends of Enchanted Rock, a non-profit which makes the Granite Gripper possible. The Friends group re-invests the proceeds directly through trail improvements, climbing hardware maintenance and other efforts, exclusively for the benefit of Enchanted Rock SNA users.

Together, we are committed to:

- Maintaining bolts & hardware on existing climbing routes
- Preserving Enchanted Rock as a State Natural Area
- Constructing & maintaining hiking trails
- Offering guided tours & educational signs
- Promoting volunteerism in the park

Our Needs...

- Funding for trail projects, bolt maintenance and interpretive signs.
- Gear to offer our competitors.
- Gear & swag for silent auctions & goodie bags.

Your Incentives...

- Logo and/or Company Name display
 - On tee shirts (Size corresponds to sponsorship level).
 - Web site links
 - Event signage / banners.
- Recognition from podium
